

EDINBURGH AIRPORT LTD's AIRSPACE CHANGE PROPOSAL

[STATEMENT]

As part of 'Stage 1 –Define' of the CAP1616 airspace change process, the UK Civil Aviation Authority has completed a Define Gateway Assessment of Edinburgh Airport Ltd's airspace change proposal (ACP).

In order for the CAA to allow an ACP to pass through the Define Gateway, the change sponsor must have:

- Produced a Statement of Need and the CAA has determined that an airspace change is an appropriate option to consider against the requirements in Appendix A
- Produced design principles that are deemed acceptable to the CAA
- Met with the CAA to discuss the airspace change process (unless a meeting was not required) and demonstrated that it understands what will be required of it
- Explained to the CAA's satisfaction how the design principles were influenced through stakeholder engagement against the requirements in Appendix D

In our Gateway Assessment, the CAA concluded that the change sponsor did not satisfy the requirements under page 36 of CAP1616, specifically:

"The change sponsor must have explained to the CAA's satisfaction how the design principles were influenced through stakeholder engagement against the requirements in Appendix D"

As well as:

"The CAA must have accepted the process and approach used to develop the design principles against the requirements in Appendix D."

Appendix D states, "the rationale behind the decision to adopt those principles including evidence as to why any stakeholder group's view has been discounted for these purposes."

The Civil Aviation Authority has informed the change sponsor of this decision and provided detailed feedback. In line with CAP1616, the change sponsor is now able to reconsider its design principle(s) before resubmitting it for further review by the Civil Aviation Authority at a future Define Gateway.

It is important to note that whether an ACP passes a gateway successfully or not does not predetermine the CAA's later final decision on whether to accept the airspace change proposal. This decision is not an explicit or implicit comment on the merits or otherwise of this ACP. This will come at the decision-making stage (Stage 5).
